JS Morin - Twinborn Trilogy Collection

Firehurler was just a book I picked up on an off chance - there's a bloke in armour casually summoning some magic in his hand, and it does have a snappy title. It's been some time since I've stumbled on an author whose text was like unto a siren's call to me, and even before I was finished with the book I was all over his twitter, blog, and checking out what other books he had out.
