One Last Breath Ben Cooper

One Last Breath. Around the ancient ca. Set in England's legendary Peak District, Stephen Booth's acclaimed mysteries tell tales of men and women under siege by both ordinary life and extraordinary crime. Now, in a stunning, fascinatingly intelligent novel, Booth's uneasy young policeman, Ben Cooper, encounters an enigma that begins with a shocking murder and a victim's . . .

One Last Breath (Ben Cooper & Diane Fry, #5) by Stephen Booth

Ben Cooper tried to move a hand to wipe it away, but his arms were held too tightly. Then he felt himself traveling up a slope and saw a larger chamber, lit by artificial lights. At last there was a change in air temperature and a glimpse of daylight as the mouth of the cavern opened above him, then he heard the high-pitched cries of jackdaws.
